Willowcraft Residential Workshop

Course content

Discover the ancient art of willow weaving under the guidance of Amanda Webb. Whether you are a seasoned weaver or a complete beginner, these workshops are designed for all levels of experience.

Learn various weaving techniques and craft stunning willow sculptures and small projects, transforming raw materials into unique masterpieces. With Amanda's step by step instructions, you will have the freedom to choose what you would like to create, from elegant Tatza and Zarzo baskets to intricate animal sculptures.

The course is tailored to each individuals needs, on arrival you will discuss with Amanda what you would like to make, and she will produce a unique programme for you. Learning at your own pace with Amanda's patient guidance, you will develop the skills needed to make your own bespoke creations

About Amanda Webb

Amanda has worked with willow since 2000 as a student. The willow she uses is cultivated on the Somerset Levels, just a couple of miles from her home, making it a wonderful local and sustainable material. In 2022 after 33 years of teaching, she retired and launched Amanda Webb Makes, creating and selling her passion for weaving with others through running weaving workshops for people of all ages
