CHORAL SINGING WEEKENDS

Get active and join us for one of our singing weekends to study and perform popular choral repertoires which are led by Ian Chesworth. Having trained as a singer to post-graduate level his operatic roles have included Spoletta (Tosca), Silvio (Poliacci) and Monastatos (Magic Flute). He sang the tenor role in Howard Blake's 'The Bear' in the presence of the composer. His choral work has included the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic 'Super Sing' concerts and working with Gareth Malone for the TV series 'The Choir'. Ability to read music is necessary for our choral singing breaks.

Robyn Sevastos is currently music director of Sevenoaks Philharmonic Society, London Opera Productions, Kentish Opera, the Llantilio Crossenny Festival, Royal Tunbridge Wells Choral Society and Bromley Philharmonic Choir.
