We are delighted to welcome once again, Robyn Sevastos as leader for our Choral weekend.

Robyn graduated from Melbourne University with a BMus with First Class honours in Performance. She then continued her studies at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama gaining Postgraduate Diploma in Piano Accompaniment and an ARCM from the Royal College of Music.

Robyn is currently musical director of London Opera Productions, the Llantilio Crossenny Festival, Kentish Opera, Royal Tunbridge Wells Choral Society, Sevenoaks Philharmonic Society and Bromley Philharmonic Choir.

Robyn has conducted a large and diverse selection of choral and operatic works. Some highlights include Verdi's Requiem and Carmina Burana at the Fairfield Halls, and Bach's St Matthew Passion at St Clement Danes Church on The Strand in London. She has performed extensively and coached and accompanied a wide range of singers and instrumentalists.

For many years Robyn has led the choir in the annual Music Week holiday here at the Yarn Market Hotel Dunster, and is delighted to be back to enjoy a singing weekend.
